Position Summary

The Senior Manager of Corporate and Foundation Partnerships, reporting to the Director of Corporate & Foundation Partnerships, will play a crucial role as a member of the development team and will serve as the lead contact for corporate and foundation partnerships. This position primarily focuses on supporting and nurturing existing partnerships, as well as identifying new donors to secure funding for SeriousFun's strategic priorities. This role is essential for sustaining and expanding SeriousFun's funding targets.

This position requires an individual who is strategic, poised, able to communicate and work effectively with potential donor organizations, comfortable with communicating across a variety of levels in companies, foundations, and at SeriousFun.

Individuals at the senior manager level are expected to demonstrate strong analytical skills, logical approaches to problem solving, the ability to manage time efficiently and effectively, professional business acumen, communication skills and good judgement, while successfully contributing to a collaborative work environment.

Essential Responsibilities

Donor Administration and Management

- Manage a portfolio of 5-10 multi-year corporate and foundation grants and partnerships, including preparing grant proposals and reporting, managing co-marketing requests, and facilitating volunteer engagement activities;
- Manage donor touchpoints year-round by planning and executing bi-annual face-to-face and virtual meetings, including senior leadership and other stakeholders as appropriate;
- Prepare interim and final reports for institutional donors;

Planning

- Identify potential corporate and foundation prospects through research, cultivation and proposal submissions;
- Manage network peer groups including scheduling monthly calls, preparing agendas, communication minutes and recordings, etc.;
- Lead the annual network wide Gift-in-Kind program by communicating opportunities and managing the ordering and reporting process;

Other Development Support

- Serve as the lead contact with member camps to identify year-round volunteer opportunities with corporate and foundation partners;
- Conduct regular and detailed analysis of program performance.

Additional duties as assigned
